FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11. This is a civil action for monetary damages, arising from the fact that Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X did batter and use excessive force against Plaintiff Nelson.

12. On nd March 3, 2009, Plaintiff Nelson was living at the home of his friend Jeffrey Patterson at 313 Constitution NW, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87102.

13. On March 3, 2009, Plaintiff Nelson and Jeffrey Paterson were drinking beer at Mr. Patterson's home when an argument ensued.

14. The argument started when Plaintiff Nelson refused Jeffrey Patterson's demand that Plaintiff purchase more beer from the nearby convenience store.

15. Angry because Plaintiff Nelson refused to purchase more beer, Jeffrey Patterson went a nearby pay phone to call the police for assistance to have Plaintiff Nelson permanently removed from Patterson's home.

16. After making the initial 911 call, Patterson returned to his 313 Constitution residence, whereupon the argument resumed and continued.

17. Jeffrey Patterson left the residence to make a second 911 call.

18. While Patterson was out of the house, Plaintiff Nelson went to bed.

19. While Plaintiff Nelson was sleeping, Police Officers from the Albuquerque Police Department responded to Patterson's call for service, whereupon they made contact with Patterson, who was sitting outside of the house.

THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION AND ARTICLE II, SECTION 10 OF THE NEW MEXICO CONSTITUTION AS ENFORCED THROUGH 42 U.S.C.
1983 AND § 41-4-1 et seq.

27. Each and every foregoing allegation is herein incorporated by reference as if fully set forth.

28. At all times material hereto, Plaintiff Nelson had a state and federal constitutional right to be free of excessive and unnecessary use of force in the course of arrest and custody.

29. The force that Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X used upon Plaintiff was unnecessary, objectively unreasonable and excessive under the circumstances and resulted in a significant injury to Plaintiff.

30. Prior to engaging in his unlawful actions, including the use of unnecessary force against a citizen who posed no threat to the officer, self or the public, Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X had a duty to critically evaluate the facts upon which they would rely to support their actions and to determine if such actions were objectively reasonable and in good faith under the totality of the circumstances.

31. Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X failed to exercise this duty in these regards and their actions were not objectively reasonable.

32. Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X actions during the arrest and custody of Plaintiff, to wit, the attack from the K-9 dog, the use of Tactical Immobilization, and use of Electrical Immobilization constituted excessive and unreasonable force.

33. In addition, the actions undertaken by Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X were willful, wanton and in reckless disregard of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

34. Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X actions as described herein were a direct and proximate cause of the deprivation of Plaintiff's rights under the New Mexico Constitution and the United States Constitution, as well as the resultant injuries and damages in medical bills; personal injury; and emotional distress of the garden-variety type that any person would be expected to suffer under like circumstances

41. Each and every foregoing allegation is herein incorporated by reference as if fully set forth.

42. The acts and omissions in violation of Plaintiff's rights by the Individual Defendant were perpetrated pursuant to the custom and policy of Defendants City and County.

43. Defendants City and County either maintains official policies of permitting their respective employees with regards to the use of excessive force and battery and violating the constitutional rights of citizens or, in the alternative, maintains a de facto policy of ignoring such actions by said employees.

44. Defendants City's and County's knowledge of the individually named defendants' illegal conduct towards Plaintiff as well as the illegal conduct perpetrated by other City and County employees can be inferred by the obviousness of the facts surrounding this incident, as well as Defendant City and County's lack of adequate policies, procedures and actual processes to ensure adequate, safe and effective interactions with members of the general public. City and County Defendants were deliberately indifferent to what occurred to Plaintiff Nelson, as well as other citizens.

45. Defendant City's and County's policies, procedures, and/or customs, either official or de facto, were a moving force behind the individually named defendants' illegal acts and a direct and proximate cause of the deprivation of Plaintiff's rights under New Mexico and United States Constitutions and New Mexico Tort Claims Act, as well as the injuries and damages described herein.

COUNT IV: MUNICIPAL LIABILITY
DEFENDANTS CITY AND COUNTY (FAILURE TO TRAIN AND SUPERVISE)

46. Each and every foregoing allegation is herein incorporated by reference

47. The acts and omissions in violation of Plaintiff's rights by the individually named defendants were perpetrated pursuant to the custom and policy of Defendant City and County.

48. Defendants City and County failed to train the individual defendants and/or failed to supervise the individual defendants regarding the circumstances under which adequate, safe and effective interactions with the public occur.

49. Defendant City's and County's failure to train and/or supervise the individually named defendants regarding their illegal conduct towards Plaintiff, as well as the illegal conduct perpetrated by other City and County employees, can be inferred by the obviousness of the facts herein, as well as the numerous other lawsuits filed against both entities for similar violations.

50. Defendants City and County were deliberately indifferent to the rights of Plaintiff and other city and county citizens.

51. Defendant City's and County's failure to train and supervise the individual defendants was a moving force behind these defendant's illegal acts and was a direct and proximate cause of the deprivation of Plaintiff's rights under the United States Constitution, the New Mexico Constitution and the New Mexico Tort Claims Act, as well as the resultant injuries and damages described herein.

53. The acts and omissions of Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X herein were willful, wanton, intentional, malicious, and committed with the intent to cause harm, and said acts and omissions did in fact cause harm to Plaintiff.

54. The award of punitive damages as against these individually named defendants is justified and necessary in order to dissuade them and others similarly situated from behaving in the same or similar manner in the future.

55. No punitive damages are requested or sought against the City and County Defendant or any of the individually named defendants in their official capacities.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff asks that the Court to accept his complaint and order appropriate preliminary hearings on all issues susceptible to such hearings. Plaintiff further asks that the Court, after all preliminary matters are resolved and full discovery has been had, order trial by jury of the case on its merits. Plaintiff asks that following trial this Court award nominal damages and compensatory damages against all Defendants and award punitive damages against Defendants Wulf, Slather and John and Jane Does 1-X in their individual capacities. Finally, Plaintiff asks that the Court award the costs of this action and reasonable attorney's fees, and such other and further relief as may be deemed just and equitable under the circumstances as described herein.
